PREPARE TO BE AMAZED....

2008 AWESOME International Arts Festival for Bright Young Things

AWESOME Arts has once again searched the world over to showcase engaging, challenging and spectacular artists and performers in this year's AWESOME International Arts Festival for Bright Young Things running in the Perth CBD from 16-23 November.

This year's program features artists from New York, Belgium, the Netherlands, Melbourne and of course, the best from the West!

The AWESOME Festival invites young people from 6-16 years and their families to experience astonishing art, still, every year people of all ages flock to the event to share in the wonder and excitement that AWESOME brings to Perth.

Where else could you find a circus that has shrunk in the wash?... a human skateboard?...Shakespeare performed by tiny ninja figurines?...an ATM that dispenses self-help advice?... giant sand sculptures?...and a life-size interactive board game? ..not to mention a magic dog that turns rubbish into recycled treasure!

In addition to lots of great stuff to see, the AWESOME Festival offers an array of totally amazing things to do including workshops on animation, food art, sand sculpture, contemporary dance and the art of re-using materials.

Book in for a workshop or just come into Perth and hang out – there is heaps of free stuff to see and do.

Just get yourself into the Perth CBD and prepare to be amazed... For more information visit www.awesomearts.com
