Suitcase at the 2010 AWESOME Festival 24 November 2010

Delve into the world of a paper clad homeless family. A mother, father and a cheeky puppet child travel from place to place, shoe-shining their way into the hearts of the audience. A light-hearted and touching show about poverty, Suitcase blends beautifully animated puppetry and compelling storytelling to follow the family's life, living out of one suitcase and communicating by drawing pictures in rice.

Suitcase is showing as part of the 2010 AWESOME Festival this Saturday and Sunday at 12.30pm and 3pm both days at the Bosco Theatre Tent in the Perth Cultural Centre, outside PICA. Tickets are $10 for adults and children are free. Bookings can be made online through www.awesomearts.com or call 9328 9666

The 2010 AWESOME Festival runs from 19 – 28 November in the Perth CBD, showcasing contemporary theatre, film & animation, visual arts, dance, music and new media. Many events are free and are suitable for the young and the young at heart.

About Krinkl Theatre

Multi award winning Krinkl Theatre crinkle, wrap and sticky tape newspaper, plastic bags, coloured paper and other discarded objects to create delightful visual images and puppets.

Krinkl Theatre offer innovative and engaging puppet theatre for the whole family and keep their audience sitting on the knife's edge between the fantasy of animated objects and the reality of rubbish.

The materials used, the abstract forms they create and the variety of manipulation techniques used, helps the audience to fall in love with malformed creatures and puppets, sometimes produced before their eyes.

All Krinkl Theatre performances are non-verbal and endeavour to creatively raise the awareness of their audience on social and environmental issues.
